Dan Brewer's Michiana Southern Layout.

Modeling from Burns Harbor to Elkhart thru Pinola/Chesterton, La Porte,
New Carlisle and South Bend/Mishawaka.

It's time to take another look at Dan's layout. The last time we visited we saw his excellent benchwork was near completion and now track and buildings are starting to be installed. Shown below are the early stages of the layout construction, that continues to be a work in progress. Dan is also adding the NMRA Standard of Layout Command Control (LCC). Stop in to see how the railroad is taking shape.
